EWGA Madison Chapter Newsletter

March 2006

President's Message

Dear EWGA Madison Chapter Members:

I had the opportunity to work the Madison Area Golf Show booth this February, and it is really incredible what our small organization has done to increase awareness about women's golf. In the early years, the comments about our organization were much more likely to be questions: What is it? Who is it? Why would I join? etc. Many of these questions were raised by other golf organizations and avid players. This year, I had an opportunity to chat with a member of the WSGA Board of Directors and received many compliments about our organization's ability to introduce women to the game of golf. The quote was: "Your organization is doing it better than any of the others." (I immediately replied: "Of course.")

Not really. I expressed appreciation for the comments, and stressed that it is really the dynamics of the members of this organization that have created our success. As we approach our Kick-Off for 2006, consider asking a friend or two that you know who may benefit from meeting some really great women, may benefit from the potential for client development, may have an interest in participating in a charity event that benefits women, or simply wants to play! Share what you already know, and invite them to join you at Kick-off and join us in EWGA-Madison in 2006! Spring is just around the corner; see you on March 28th!

Invite a Friend to 2006 Kick Off!

Share your EWGA experience with a friend or colleague at our upcoming Kick-Off on March 28, 2006. For each member you recruit from January 1 through March 31, 2006, your name will be entered into the second quarterly random drawing for a fun-filled stay-and-play experience. This member promotional "stay and play" prize features a stay for two nights and a round of golf for two at the Hilton Head Sea Pines Resort in South Carolina.

The more members you recruit, the greater your chances are to win! Plus, you are automatically entered into the overall Member-Get-A-Member Program and the chance to win fabulous prizes courtesy of Nike Golf for 2006. So, please invite a guest to the March 28 event.

Special EWGA Member Benefit

If you are a member of EWGA or are considering becoming a member, The Meadows of Sixmile Creek offers an additional way for you to save on your cost of golf!

By becoming a Preferred Player with Madison Golf, your cost of playing in the Tuesday EWGA league at Sixmile drops from $270 for the season to $173! If you plan to play even a moderate amount of golf at other times during the season, it may be worth your while to join as a Preferred Player today, and enjoy all of the benefits, including:

Save $16 per 18-hole round and $8 per 9-hole round,

Golf car discounts every time you play,

20% discount on all pro shop merchandise,

Access to preferred player tee-times like Sunset and Early Bird,

Access to Weekender rates, and Access to participating in the Sixmile Preferred Player/Guest days.

The cost of an individual Preferred Player Package is just $390 for the entire season. Along with the benefits outlined above, you automatically have the same privileges extended to the other two Madison Golf courses--Meadow Springs in Jefferson and Windwood of Watertown. So now you can have golf value at three courses instead of just one!

To join today, call:

On or prior to March 31, 2006: Bill Reller, Director of Operations, Madison Golf at (608) 836-0596 or email breller@madisongolf.com.

After March 31, 2006: Chris Paitrick, General Manager/Head Golf Professional, Sixmile Creek at (608) 849-9000 or email cpaitrick@golfsixmilecreek.com.
